ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

All praise and gratitude are prayed to the presence of God Almighty, Allah SWT, for His grace, mercy, and blessings, which allowed the author to successfully complete this undergraduate thesis entitled "The Development of User M-Tix Application in Improving User Experience (UX) using A/B Testing Method." This thesis was prepared as one of the requirements to obtain a Bachelor of Business degree in the Digital Business Study Program, Faculty of Economics, Universitas Negeri Medan.

Writing this thesis was not an easy road. There were many moments of doubt, exhaustion, and times when I felt pushed to my limits. However, I made it through thanks to the immense sacrifices, prayers, and love from my wonderful parents, Mama and Papa. Thank you for your never-ending support; you are the biggest reason I was able to cross the finish line. The researcher would also like to express the deepest appreciation and gratitude to:

1. Prof. Dr. Baharuddin, S.T., M.Pd., as the Rector of Universitas Negeri Medan.
2. Dr. Haikal Rahman, M.Si., as the Dean of the Faculty of Economics, Universitas Negeri Medan, and as the Thesis Supervisor. Thank you for your extraordinary patience in guiding the researcher from ground zero until this thesis reached its final form, and for providing the motivation and confidence that allowed the researcher to believe in their own abilities.
3. Dr. T. Teviana, S.E., M.Si., as the Vice Dean for Academic Affairs of the Faculty of Economics, Universitas Negeri Medan.
4. Aprinawati, S.E, M.M., as the Head of the Management Department, Faculty of Economics, Universitas Negeri Medan.
5. Rangga Restu Prayogo, S.A.B., M.Si., as the Secretary of the Management Department and the Second Examiner, who provided valuable insights and constructive feedback for the improvement of this thesis.

6. Dr. Haryadi, S.Kom., M.Kom., as the Head of the Digital Business Study Program and the Third Examiner, who provided valuable insights and constructive feedback for the improvement of this thesis.
7. Khafi Puddin, S.E., M.Si., as the Head of the Entrepreneurship Study Program, Faculty of Economics, Universitas Negeri Medan.
8. Dr. Zulkarnain Siregar, S.T., M.M., as the First Examiner, who provided valuable insights and constructive feedback for the improvement of this thesis.
9. All Lecturers of the Digital Business Program, who shared their knowledge and guidance during the author's years of study at the Faculty of Economics, Universitas Negeri Medan.
10. All Staff and Administrative Personnel at the Faculty of Economics, Universitas Negeri Medan, for their assistance in managing the administrative requirements.
11. My dearest sister and future brother-in-law, Tamara Balqis Nasution and Liandry Eka Marta Aditya, thank you for always providing endless support and encouragement, both materially and morally.
12. Jihan Nadhira, Nabilla Azzahra, Putri Ayu Athifa S., and Thahira Nasution for witnessing my growth and for never judging my slow progress. Instead, thank you for always providing moral support and reassuring me that "if we could pass our school exams together back then, we can certainly get through this thesis as well."
13. To Aisya Salsabila, Siti Rahmah Purba, and Nurul Hajirah, in moments when I felt like giving up, your presence was the quiet strength that reminded me I wasn't fighting this battle alone. Thank you for being my safe harbor in every storm I faced.
14. My high school friends, Atika Zahra Nasution, Bay Haqqi Sumantri, Gusti Arya Lutfi, and Varadilla Putri. Although we have grown in different environments, studied at different universities, and pursued dreams on diverging paths, the bond we built long ago has never faded with time.
15. Aqilah Shabrina, Ahmad Mahalli, Choiriyah Adha, and M. Wahyu Hidayat, thank you for being the best friends and support system during college. Thank you for sharing the joys and sorrows of facing various assignments and courses, as well as our shared anxieties about the future.

16. Ernita Fatmawati, Eva Nwezenia Nauli, and Zahratul Syta, thank you for proving to me that true friendship isn't about being in the same room; it's about the heart. Distance really means nothing when i have friends like you.
17. Lastly, a huge thank you to myself for every step taken despite being shrouded in doubt, and for the courage to face various fears. Thank you to my heart for always trying to accept things with an open mind even when reality did not always align with expectations.

The researcher acknowledges that this research is not without its limitations and recognizes that there is always room for improvement. Consequently, constructive criticism and scholarly suggestions are sincerely welcomed as valuable input for further evaluation and the refinement of future studies. It is the author's hope that this thesis will contribute meaningfully to the field and serve as a reliable reference for interested parties in the years to come.
