

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSIONS AND SUGGESTIONS

A. Conclusions

Based on the previous chapter, the conclusion can be formulated as follows:

1. There were five types of politeness principles used in the utterance of Gloria; it consists of 34 (43 %) expression of Tact Maxim, 13 (16 %) expressions of Approbation Maxim, 13 (16 %) expressions of Modesty Maxim, 6 (10 %) expressions of Agreement Maxim, and 12 (15 %) expressions of Sympathy Maxim. Therefore, there were 78 expressions of politeness principles that are found in the Gloria' utterances.
2. The most dominant type of politeness principles that was used by Gloria in her conversation was Tact Maxim. It means Gloria wanted to unite thought and hope between her and the others character in Demi Ucok. So, she maximized the expression of beliefs, which caused benefit to other. She used Tact Maxim to get respect from the others because people usually be glad and welcome someone who has the same understanding and point of view.

3. The implication of politeness principles in her conversation should use politeness principles in our daily life because people will feel comfortable to interact to someone who talks politely.

B. Suggestions

In relation to the conclusion, it is suggested that,

1. Students, who have studied in applied linguistics, should do more learning the others principles politeness.
2. Other researchers, who will conduct further researchers on politeness principles in other setting of communications to complete the study about politeness principles, so the reader could, comprehend about it.