CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

A. Conclusion

After analyzing the movie, finally the writer concluded:

1. There were 8 types euphemism were occurred in The Dressmaker movie script. There are metaphor, remodelling, circumlocution, clippings, full-omission, metonymy, hyperbole, and understatement.

2. The characters used the euphemism is in to order to keep the relationship between them, they try to not to embarrassing the interlocutors, keep the listeners from losing face, and conserve the somebody’s self-esteem.

B. Suggestion

There were several suggestions that writer could offer to readers towards euphemism, they are:

1. For English department student, they may use this study as a reference to understand the study of linguistics related to euphemism and apply it in the daily life especially in speaking.

2. For future researchers or reader could be more pay attention in kind of types euphemism in order to can distinguish clearly between one type with the others, because there are some types that make us confused.