CHAPTER I  INTRODUCTION

1.1 The Background of the Study ............................................... 1
1.2 The Problems of the Study .................................................. 6
1.3 Objective of the Study .......................................................... 6
1.4 The Scope of the Study ............................................................ 7
1.5 The Significances of the Study ............................................. 7

CHAPTER II  REVIEW OF RELATED LITERATURE

2.1 Reading Comprehension ...................................................... 8
2.2 Reading as a process ............................................................ 12
2.3 Students’ Achievement in Reading Comprehension ............ 14
2.4 The Assessment of Reading Comprehension ................. 18
2.5 The Levels of Comprehension .......................................... 20
2.5.1 Literal Reading ............................................................. 20
2.5.2 Interpretative Reading ................................................... 21
2.5.3 Critical Reading .......................................................... 21
2.5.4 Creative Reading ......................................................... 21
2.6 Teaching Techniques ......................................................... 22
2.7 Cooperative Reading

2.8 The Basic Element of Cooperative Learning

2.8.1 Positive Interdependence

2.8.2 Face to Face Promotive Interaction

2.8.3 Individuals Accountability

2.8.4 Social Skill

2.8.5 Group Processing

2.9 Team Assisted Individualization (TAI)

2.9.1 Steps-Step of Team Assisted Individualization

2.10 The Principal Team Assisted Individualization

2.10.1 Teams

2.10.2 Placement Test

2.11 Cooperative Integrated and Reading Composition

2.11.1 The Major Component of CIRC

2.12 Students’ Motivation

2.12.1 Motivation

2.12.2 Kinds of Motivation

2.12.3 Impacting Motivation in the Classroom

2.13 High and Low Motivation

2.14 Previous Research

2.15 Conceptual Framework

2.15.1 The Differences of students’ achievement in Reading
    Comprehension that taught by using Cooperative
    Integrated Reading and Composition and Team
    Assisted Individualization

2.15.2 The Differences of students’ achievement in reading comprehension that have high motivation and that have low motivation
2.15.3 Interaction between teaching techniques and motivation on students’ achievement in reading comprehension ...................................................... 49

2.16 Hypotheses of Study ............................................................................. 52

CHAPTER III METHODOLOGY OF RESEARCH

3.1 Research Design .................................................................................. 53

3.2 Population and Sample of the Study ............................................................................. 54

3.2.1 Population .................................................................................. 54

3.2.2 Sample .......................................................................................... 54

3.3 Treatment Implementation ............................................................................. 55

3.4 Control of Treatment ............................................................................. 59

3.4.1 Internal Validity ............................................................................. 59

3.4.2 External Validity ............................................................................. 60

3.5 The Instrument of Data Collection ............................................................................. 60

3.5.1 Motivation Questionnaire ............................................................................. 60

3.5.2 Reading Comprehension Test ............................................................................. 61

3.6 Instrument Tryout of Data Collection ............................................................................. 63

3.6.1 Validity of Reading Comprehension Test ............................................................................. 63

3.6.2 Reliability of Reading Comprehension Test ............................................................................. 64

3.6.3 Difficulty Index of Reading Comprehension Test Items ............................................................................. 64

3.6.4 Discrimination Index of Reading Comprehension Test Items ............................................................................. 65

3.6.5 Validity of motivation questionnaire ............................................................................. 66

3.6.6 Reliability of Motivation Questionnaire ............................................................................. 66

3.7 The Technique of Analyzing Data ............................................................................. 67

3.8 Statistical Hypothesis ............................................................................. 67

CHAPTER IV DATA AND DATA ANALYSIS

4.1 Description of Data ............................................................................. 69

4.2 Requirement of Data Analysis ............................................................................. 83
