

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTIONS

A. Conclusion

Based on the research finding, it was concluded that there is a significant effect of applying Vocabulary Self-Collection strategy (VSS) on students' achievement in reading descriptive text. This conclusion is supported by the data analysis results in which the  $t_{\text{observed}}$  (5.71) is higher than the  $t_{\text{table}}$  (2.001) at the significant level of 0.05 and the degree of freedom (df) at level 58. Therefore, null hypothesis ( $H_0$ ) is rejected and the alternative hypothesis ( $H_a$ ) is accepted.

Related to the acceptance of the alternative hypothesis ( $H_a$ ), the Vocabulary Self-Collection Strategy (VSS) surely approved to be applied as a strategy to raise students' achievement in reading descriptive text especially. It also can be applied to another level of knowledge that related to the learning process of reading.

B. Suggestions

As a result of the conclusion above, the researcher gives some suggestions for those who are interested in reading as follow:

1. English teachers are suggested to apply Vocabulary Self-collection Strategy (VSS) in their teaching process in order to improve the students' reading achievement especially in reading by teaching the students by the correct steps of Vocabulary Self-collection Strategy

(VSS), starts from the process of selecting and nominating word, up to the process of making words into chart.

2. Students are advised to have more practice in reading by applying Vocabulary Self-collection Strategy (VSS). They have to be more conscious in following the steps in the Vocabulary Self-collection Strategy (VSS), starts from the process of selecting and nominating word, up to the process of making words into chart.
3. The researcher who are interested in leading a research related to the study should try to apply Vocabulary Self-collection Strategy (VSS) on different levels of learns through different genre to prove the effectiveness of Vocabulary Self-collection Strategy (VSS) in reading by searching out related sources of Vocabulary Self-collection Strategy (VSS) and apply it corectly.
