

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

A. Conclusion

This thesis deals with the speech act in “John Q” movie’s script. This research is conducted by descriptive qualitative design, that is make description of the situation and or event. After classifying and analyzing all the data the result found that there are 360 utterances that uttered by the main character, namely John Q.

It can be concluded that:

1. According to Yule’s theory there are five types of speech acts. From the whole data, she classifying the five types and found that all types of speech acts were used by the main character, namely John Q in “John Q” movie’s script. There are 360 utterances consist of Declarations is 11 (3,05%) utterances, Representatives is 112 (31,11%) utterances, Expressives is 27 (7,50%) utterances, Directives is 187 (51,94%) utterances and Commisives is 23 (6,40%) utterances.
2. After classifying 360 utterances based on the five types of speech acts, then she found the dominant type. From all types, Directives is the dominantly used by the main character, namely John Q . It can be seen from the total number of utterance that is 187 utterances or 51.94%.
3. The implication of Directives that is the dominantly type of speech acts used by the main character, namely John Q are requesting, commanding, insisting, advising, warning. It means that John Q used requesting form when he needs a help to the head of hospital, the police and the doctor for saving Mike's life. Using commanding form when he wanted his son on the donor list and make an operation, using insisting hen he knew that there is no option and way how to save his son. Using advising form when he thought that he will not around with Mike again, he advices Mike to be a god boy. Using warning form when he knew that the police and the head of hospital was cheating him.

B. Suggestions

Referring to the conclusion above, the following are written as the suggestion which useful for:

1. Students of English Department especially to Literature Student to learn more about how Speech Acts used in a text, book and especially a dialogue in the movie.
2. Other researcher who wants to make as reference for the further research to analyze the five types of speech acts. This research can help the further researcher to know and understand how the five types of speech acts used in communication.

People who loves John Q movie. It is better for them to study or understand the speech acts that used in the utterances, especially the main character, John Q and to know the purpose of the utterances.