

CHAPTER V CONCLUSIONS AND SUGGESTIONS

A. Conclusions

Having collected and analyzing the data, some conclusions were given below:

1. There were four types maxims violation in The Avengers (2012) movie. There were 34 utterances (68%) maxim violation of relation, 8 utterances (16%) maxim violation of quality, 5 utterances (10%) maxim violation of quantity, 3 utterances (6%) maxim violation of manner.
2. The result showed that the most dominant type of maxims which was violated in The Avengers movie was the maxim violation of relation.
3. The implication of maxim violation of relation as the dominant type of maxims in the script of The Avengers movie was a strategy from the speakers to hide the truth and to create humor by giving irrelevant answer or changing the topic.

B. Suggestions

Having conducted a research about an analysis of maxim violation, it is useful to consider the following suggestions:

1. It is advisable for readers to understand the cooperative principle with its maxims, especially the four types of maxim violation in order to avoid misunderstanding among the participants and to get the speaker`s intention through his utterances on the conversation. Breaking the maxim or violating the maxim can make the wrong perception for the listener.

2. It is suggested to other researchers and the students of English and Literature who are taking pragmatics, start to analyzing and understanding further research in order to master the maxim violation deeply.
3. It is suggested for the readers should have a good knowledge of the use of maxim, and avoid the maxim violation because not every person knows the implication of the maxim violation.
