

BIOGRAPHY

Tommy Hans Sinaga was born in Medan, North Sumatra on 18 September 1995. He was the third son of Mr. Togar Sinaga and Alm. Mrs. Farida Simatupang, Hj. In 2000, the author started his first educational experience in Sarah School Kindertenden Medan. Continue to 2001, the author was entering to Harapan 1 Medan school, and started the elementary experience. After graduated in 2007, he continue his educational experience at SMPN 3 Medan. Finished in 2010, he registered to SMAN 5 Medan to get the high school education. Graduated in 2013, he enrolled to Bilingual Biology Education Program, Department of Biology, Faculty of Mathematics and Natural Science, Medan State University. The author also has done the Field Experience Program in SMAN 2 Saposurung Balige in 2016.

During the study at university level, the author was become the assisstant of laboratory for Environmental Biology Experiment, Lower Animal Taxonomy Experiment, Higher Animal Taxonomy Experiment, Lower Plant Taxonomy Experiment, Plant Physiology Experiment, Plant Ecology Experiment. Besides became the assistant, the author also following several competition of scientific paper, essay, camp, and youth action. Furthermore, he was the member of KOPECIDA (Komunitas Pemuda Cinta Damai Anak Indonesia) and the current member of YFCC (Youth for Climate Change) community.