

CHAPTER V CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTIONS

A. Conclusion

After analyzing the data on the research finding and discussion, the conclusion of the present study can be drawn as follows:

1. Eighth grade students of SMPN2 Pancurbatu comprehend texts of different genres in level of literal and inferential comprehension. Eighth grade students of SMPN2 Pancurbatu's reading comprehension of texts of different genres was in good category (72.41). Then, for literal comprehension was 75.95 which belonged to good category and inferential comprehension was 72.41 also belonged to good category. It showed eighth grade students of SMN2 Pancurbatu had better literal comprehension than inferential comprehension.
2. Eighth grade students of SMPN2 Pancurbatu comprehend texts of 4 different genres. They were descriptive 69.75 which was belong to fair category, narrative 75, recount 73.98 and procedure 73.29 was belong to good category. It showed eighth grade students of SMPN2 Pancurbatu comprehend narrative text better than others. Even toug based on the result, students reading comprehension of texts of different genres was categorized as good comprehension.

B. Suggestion

By considering the conclusion there were some suggestion which are presented as follow:

1. The teacher should give the students test of reading comprehension systematically to increase student's ability in reading comprehension.
2. By considering the result of the test, the teacher could choose the best technique in teaching reading comprehension and students can evaluate their ability in reading comprehension.

