

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

A. Conclusion

This research is about developing Pop up book as media of writing procedure text for grade 11 students of culinary program. The research is conducted due to the inadequacy of learning media. The teacher needs more supporting media which can attract students to learn English writing. To solve the problem, then this new teaching media was designed to support the teaching and learning process based on students' and teacher's needs.

The theory of this research is Research and Development theory by Borg and Gall. There are six steps in conducting this research; they are gathering information, needs analysis, designing media, validation, revision, and the last is final product. the media was formed in a set of books. From the assessments and responses from the experts, it can be concluded that the Pop Up book as the product of this research is feasible to apply as media of writing procedure text for grade 11 students of culinary program.

B. Suggestions

Researcher suggests that before using the media teacher should understand how to use it. To improve the effectiveness of the media, the teacher is expected to do another innovation. This media can also be designed with other material and techniques.