

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

A. Conclusion

Based on the results of the analysis in accordance with research problems, three things were concluded, namely:

1. There were 5 (five) types of euphemisms, which were in the five wedding ceremony processes at the wedding reception. The types of euphemisms found in the traditional wedding ceremony of the deli malay people are; 8 utterances in one for substitution (47,06%), 3 utterances in metaphor(17,64%), 3 utterances in hyperbole (17,64%), 2 utterances in figurative expression (11,77%) and 1 utterance circumlocution (5,89%).
2. The meanings of euphemism in this research, they were: to give advice for groom and bride, to guidance in order to achieve the purpose of marriage and to motivate groom and bride in living a new life in marriage.
3. Manner and ethics were identity of Malay people. Through with development of Malay people in Medan (Deli Malay) they affected by development of existing language. Because of that Deli Malay wedding ceremony used euphemism is in order to keep the relationship between them, they tried not embarrassing the interlocutors, and keep listeners from losing face, and conserve the somebody's self-esteem.

B. Suggestions

There were several suggestions that writer could offer to readers towards euphemism, they were;

1. Theoretically significance

For English Department student, they used this study as reference to understand the study of semantic study related to euphemism and apply in daily life especially in speaking.

2. Practically significance

For Future Researchers or Readers could be more pay attention in kind of euphemism in order to can distinguish clearly between one types with the others, because there are some types that make us confused.

