

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

A. Conclusion

After analyzing the data, conclusion were drawn as the following:

1. There were 4 types and 4 aspect, the types are : 1.Power, 2.Capitalist Societies, 3.Wealth And 4.Prestige. The dominant types is power about (41 %). The aspect are 1. Education, 2. Social status, 3.Descendant and 4.Position. The types that were used and found on Mandailing wedding ceremony especially in negotiation events have different meaning.
2. The reasons why the aspect that were used and occur on Mandailing wedding ceremony have different reason for the realization, because the society come from the different background and social status like education, so the dominant types for this research is power, because the utterances of the participant in negotiation event conclude the power types.

B. Suggestion

In relation to the conclusion, suggestions were staged as the following:

1. In learning a language and sociolinguistics, this study was giving us the contribution to find types and aspect why the social conflict is rise in society and daily life, because types of social conflicts and aspect of social conflict is was used on Mandailing wedding ceremony which we have learn and understand it unconsciously.

2. The readers who are interested to this study is expected to understand the meaning of types of social conflicts between upper class and lower class in Mandailing wedding ceremony because it can help to know the advices that were conveyed on types of Mandailing wedding ceremony especially in negotiation events .
3.
 - a. For the Mandailing community especially younger generations are expected to understand the reason for the realization of social conflicts with the types of social conflicts on Mandailing wedding ceremony as their culture and tradition.
 - b. For the other researcher, this study can be used as reference analysis for another ceremony and events.