Dear Dr Hasibuan

Thank you for submitting your paper on "IT-Based learning media development in Sports Anatomic Matters" for publication in our special Indonesian supplement to International Sports Studies volume 42. As indicated in earlier correspondence we would now like to work with you over the next few weeks in order to ensure that the final publication will be consistent with the standards expected from an International refereed journal.

As the starting point for an initial redraft, please find attached a copy of our reviewer's comments to the submission. In your case the advice is to start with the methods and results of your study. Please respond to the comments and guidance provided in the text reviewed and respond at your earliest convenience. Our editors will continue to work with you following your response to the guidance and advice provided.

Should you require any further information please do not hesitate to get back to me at the address below.

Yours sincerely .

Dear Colleagues of the editorial team

I am pleased to be able to advise that the draft for our special supplement is now ready to hand over to the publisher and is attached to this mail. Please confirm your approval for publishing as soon as possible so that this can be finalised without further delay.

I trust you are all safe and well and pleased as I am to see our collaboration come to fruition

Warmest regards
