

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION AND ADVICE

5.1 Conclusion

1. Based on questionnaire analysis, higher percentage of learning difficulties experienced by biology students class of 2020 is the difficulties experienced by students in understanding the explanations given by the lecturer with an average of 70%. While the lowest percentage is difficulty understanding the features contained in the SIPDA system with an average of 43%.
2. The Factors causing learning difficulties for biology students class of 2020 include internal factors and external factors. Based on internal factors with an average of 58% classified enough difficult. While external factors with an average of 59% classified enough difficult.

5.2 Advice

1. For Biology students at Universitas Negeri Medan, the results of this research can be used as information and an evaluation tool about learning difficulties in the lower organism taxonomy course
2. For future researchers, to carry out further research on affective aspects and psychomotor aspects to get a more complete information of learning difficulties in fungi topic