

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

This chapter presents the conclusion of the research as well as a few suggestions of the researcher for a better result and study in the near future.

A. Conclusion

After analyzing the data, the conclusion drawn related to the implementation of GIST strategy in teaching reading comprehension on Recount text as follows:

1. The implementation of the GIST strategy in teaching reading comprehension was well done. The teacher implemented the GIST strategy based on the instructions of the experts. The students became interested and paid attention to the teacher while retelling the text. The purpose of this strategy was to get the students' attention during reading comprehension. Therefore, students can understand one way of reading comprehension and how to get the main idea of a paragraph.
2. Based on the teacher's interview results, there are no specific difficulties in implementing the GIST strategy. The researcher concluded that the teacher had implemented the strategy very well based on the observation checklist. Because of the pandemic situation and the government policy, schools can only have half of the students in each classroom. The teacher wants to create a discussion group for the students when the strategy is implemented. But other than that, there were no specific difficulties that the teacher faced during the implementation of the strategy.

B. Suggestions

In the end of this chapter, the researcher would like to give some suggestions related to the research as follows:

1. For the English Teacher

Teacher as the most responsible person in implementing the GIST strategy should consider another aspect of students interest in learning. The interest of students and their curiosity would make the learning process more active and fun. Don't be afraid to use vary strategy in order to achieve learning objectives of study.

2. For the Next Researcher

For the next researcher who wants to explore the same topic, the researcher suggested to do the research in different point of view or different aspects. The GIST strategy is very recommended to improve student's reading comprehension ability.
