

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

5.1 Conclusion

The puprose of the study was to describe the use of animation video in teaching writing of descriptive text in teaching writing descriptive text for the VIII grade at SMPN1 Percut Sei Tuan.

1. Video was used by English teacher in teaching writing descriptive text there were four ways which was done by English teacher, those were introduce the video, play the video , stop the video and set a time for reflection. So, there were done by the English teacher.
2. The reasons of using animation video were make the students see and also hear the language in use, be more active, creative, attractive , are motivated, enjoyable, and the important things by the animation video the students could master the material in good enough, because it could make them easier to remember all the explanation by aniamtion video as media in learning.

5.2 Suggestion

in relation to the conclusions, the following are presented as the suggestion which useful for :

1. Teacher or readers should be better in applying the animation video for the students in teaching and learning process. They can read some books related in implementing of animation video in teaching learning process.
2. Other researchers who are interested in animation video, should do some further study in teaching English through animation video. This can help to know or grasp how animation video applied in teaching and learning process.

