12. Her beloved parents, Sori Muda Ritonga and Nurhijjah Pane. Thank you for pouring out such great love and struggling to make her the first degree in the family. His forehead has stuck to the prayer mat tears in his eyes. Her name is always mentioned in prayers for the smoothness of all the processes that the author faces. Thank you to her parents, who always use her as a source of strength and inspiration. Parents who only graduated from elementary school finally managed to accompany the last daughter's steps to get a degree that many people said was an "impossibility". Father and mother, please live longer, hold tight her hands, and strengthen her shoulders to face a rockier world. One piece of advice that is used as the her's race "Whatever happens, go home with a degree". Dad, Mom, finally your daughter is a graduate.

13. Her siblings, Syahwan Efendi and Nurifkah Hafni provided her with support, affection, time, and encouragement while working on the thesis arrangement while working on the thesis.
14. Her best friend, Runi Sartika, would like to express my deepest gratitude. Thank you for accompanied my steps from the beginning to the end of college. You are always there in important moments, both happy and difficult times. She can't imagine this journey without you. Your support and encouragement make everything easier and more enjoyable. Our friendship means so much to me and I am so grateful to have friends like you memories together.
15. Her childhood friends, Santri Simbolon and Saskia Anggraini. Thank you for all the support and prayers that always accompany my steps. For Santri Simbolon who is struggling at Andalas University, keep your health and spirit to work on the thesis. Later we will tell you about our long journey.
16. Class of English Literature 20 C, especially Putri Zulfa, Lilis, Sofia, Almira, Novalia, Wildina, Sheila, Dito, Andini, and Daniel, those who she often asks questions about the world of this thesis.
17. Her cousin, Mira Santika Ritonga, S.E. who her always bothered in the management of my court files. who are willing to get tired to help her.
18. Her friend, thank you to the owner of the nim 5202122001 who helped the her edit the thesis and fulfill the her nutritional intake.
19. A special person, her special thanks go to someone born on December 27, who has faithfully accompanied me throughout the process of making this thesis. You are sincerely willing to meet me and often bother me for the completion of this work.
