Great thanks and praises to almighty Allah SWT who has belessed and given the ability to complete my thesis as partial fulfillment of the requirements for the degree of Sarjana Pendidikan at the English Education of Literature Department, Lnuage and Arts Faculty, Medan state University. The writer would like to express her gratitude and feelings to the following people:

- Beloved Father and Mother (Mr Asri Purba and Mrs Siti Saidah manik, S.H) who have taken pains to educate writer to reach this highest point in her life, thank you for filling her world with infinite happiness, the prayers that you have thrown at the writer have led her to this path of success. Those of you who best understand the pain and hardships that tormented the writer when she was on the brink of success, cruel of world has tortured and darkened the writer's life, you are the writer's greatest hope to help her, then you not only helped her but showered her with affectionate whispers of prayer so that her world was filled with beautiful rainbows, namely affection, love and spoiled hugs that were too broad. Father, Mother, your smell always hugs the writer and gives warmth as if you are protecting her, you are always the most perfect person than anyone in this world, in the process of the writer growing up and so on you are the most important for her. Father, Mother, you are the most loved by the writer, the author promises not to betray this love. PROMISE!!!!
- Mr Muklis/Teguh Abdullah S.Pd thank you for being the best male friend during the writer's most difficult time in this education, all your great contributions have led the writer to reach this final point, thank you for being generous in accepting all the writer's complaints yesterday, thank you for being a beautiful home without building, the writer believes that 70% of her success is your prayer. Continue to have a way of thinking that other people rarely have, so that I will always feel grateful and lucky to have lived the beauty of life with you.
- Her Siblings The stubborn girl who is my benchmark in the overseas lands is Cici Wulan Dari Purba every see her succeed the writer also wants to success. The first time you won a university exam, then became one of the smartester student in your class and was able to graduate on time. the writer feels very proud of you, that's why the writer keeps trying until now. worship, and become individuals who have a good influence on this world, my siblings. thirt of you has a special place in the writer's heart. Thank you for being present in the writer's life and growing into a human being full of love. I REALLY LOVE YOU SIBLINGS!!!!

Dear best friend, thank you for all your attention and special way of treating the writer, you don't know how tears of joy the writer has when writing your name on this sheet. it's not easy for writers to go far away from home just for the sake of undergoing this education, but because of you, the writer feels calm because she has a place to complain. Your treatment never ends, always makes the author teary-eyed, it turns out that a woman who is so perfect in this world has been created. Thank you for being willing to be a support system for writers. Then thanks to the Friends who walked with the writer, the writer's final semester friends, we have succeeded in being at the point where we are now. let's shape a beautiful future with this strong and black and blue heart. Cry as much as we can then rise again.
