

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTIONS

5.1 Conclusion

The Show and Tell method is a method that is easy to apply and accepted by students if its application is carried out in accordance with the proper procedures. The Show and Tell method is a method that can help students not only in English speaking classes but also includes factors that drive that ability such as student confidence, student fear in starting to speak English by freeing students to choose the words and objects they want to present. This will help students to be much more creative and productive in English speaking classes. This Show and Tell method will be effective in improving students' speaking ability if the steps of this method are carried out correctly according to the steps given by experts, because each step of the Show and Tell method is very influential in improving students' speaking ability which is supported by enthusiasm during the learning process. Hubbard (2009) gives other goal in Show and Tell technique to improve speaking skill, socializing skill, problem solving, and analyzing skill of phenomenon. So to improve students' ability to speak English, this Show and Tell method must be carried out according to the steps.

5.2 Suggestions

At the end of this chapter, the researcher would like to provide some suggestions related to this research as follows:

1. For English Teachers

Teachers as the people most responsible for implementing the Show and Tell Method, should implement this strategy according to the right steps so that the implementation of this method can maximize students' speaking skills. Students' interest and curiosity was make the learning process more active and enjoyable. Don't be afraid to use a variety of methods according to students' needs and materials in order to achieve learning objectives.

2. For Students

For students as an important part of this research, the close success of this method can be produced from a good cooperative relationship between teachers and students. It is expected that students can benefit from the English Speaking class process using the Show and Tell method which can not only improve their speaking skills but also their confidence in conveying what they want to say.

3. For Further Researchers

For further researchers who want to study the same topic, the researcher suggests conducting research from a different perspective or aspect. The Show and Tell Method is highly recommended to improve students' speaking skills
