

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSSION AND SUGGESTION

A. Conclusion

After analyzing the data, the conclusions are:

1. Based on McNeil Theory there were four types of gestures, and in the movie Jumanji Welcome to The Jungle (2017) also used the each of types. Table above shows that there were some of types in the movie that there were 47 records found. There are 14 (30%) data as iconic gestures, 18 (38%) data as metaphor gestures, 13 (28%) data as deictic gestures, and 2 (4%) data as beat gestures.
2. It was discovered by each gesture based on the movie context and cultural context meaning. Each gestures have their own meaning. Therefore, gestures refer to the context within conversations in movie and within cultural. Since gestures depend on a particular situation, not all gestures in the context in movie and culture align. Consequently, gestures are influenced by their respective cultures.
3. In the movie Jumanji Welcome to The Jungle (2017) the characters used gestures for different purposes: it was discovered also by situation, place, the time and the interlocutor.

B. Suggestion

1. For the English Department, because gestures play a crucial role in communication and can significantly enhance the effectiveness of our messages because gestures are non-verbal communication, enhancing understanding, expressing emotions, engaging and captivating, cross-cultural communication and building rapport and trust. Based on the above conclusions, some suggestions that can be conveyed are as follows: the words can fit into one of several categories, depending on the context of the sentence.
2. For Future linguistic researcher interested in the same topic will benefit from this study's description of various gestures and their meanings. Analysis is needed on several subjects, such as the types and meanings of gestures. For scholars interested in the same topic, this research can provide a more in-depth understanding and additional details on the same topic. This research has educated the general public on how to use gestures appropriately in communication so that there is good communication between the speaker and the interlocutor.