17. Nazla Amrina S.Pd., English teacher at UPT SMPN 5 Medan, for her kindness, assistance, and cooperation during the research process.
18. To her beloved parents, Khairul Azmi, S.Pd., and Eva Yustina, who have always entrusted her with full confidence as their first daughter. Their unconditional love, endless support, and unwavering encouragement have been the foundation of her strength. Thank you for the constant guidance, affection, and belief that allowed her to grow, persevere, and reach this milestone.
19. To her beloved younger siblings, Hafiza Khairani and Hadyan Fikri Azmi, who have looked up to their sister as a role model and continuously offered encouragement. Thank you for the beautiful dreams of the future you shared, the unwavering support you gave, and even the playful teasing that, in its own way, became a source of strength and motivation.
20. To her dearest childhood friend, Fitri Yani, whose friendship has stood the test of time since elementary school, thank you for the constant companionship, understanding, and support through all seasons of life. To her closest friends in college (Dea, Habiba, Hammi, and Salsa) thank you for the laughter, encouragement, and unwavering presence during both struggles and joys. Your friendship has made this journey far more meaningful and unforgettable.

21. All classmates of DIK 2021 C, whose names may not be mentioned individually but whose companionship, shared experiences, and memorable moments made this academic journey remarkable and unforgettable.
22. Lara Aprianda, thank you in advance for the love, patience, and companionship that await in the journey ahead. May the support, prayers, and shared dreams we will build together become a source of strength and inspiration for every step in life. Though this thesis marks the end of one chapter, it also becomes a reminder of the hope for a beautiful future together.
23. Lastly, to herself, Nazla Azura, for never giving up despite the struggles, doubts, and countless challenges along the way. Thank you for having the courage to keep moving forward, for learning to rise after every setback, and for believing in your own strength. This thesis stands as a testament not only to hard work and perseverance but also to self-love and resilience.

The writer realizes that this thesis is not without its shortcomings; nevertheless, she is open to receiving constructive feedback, whether in the form of suggestions or guidance. It is her sincere hope that this work will prove beneficial for readers and for anyone interested in the topic.
