ABSTRACT

Putri C. Samosir, Student ID 2211141013, "The Character Education Values of Tortor Sibunga Jambu in Gondang Naposo in Samosir Regency," Thesis, Department of Dance and Performing Arts, Faculty of Languages and Arts, Medan State University, 2026.

This study aims to describe the character education values contained in Tortor Sibunga Jambu during Gondang Naposo in Samosir Regency. The theory used is taken from the Ministry of National Education (2010:9-10), which formulates 18 character education values. This study used a qualitative approach and was conducted at the Tunas Kelapa Art Studio in Samosir Regency. The subjects included dance instructors, traditional leaders, and dancers. Data collection techniques were conducted through observation, interviews, and documentation. Data analysis in this study employed descriptive qualitative analysis. The results show that Tortor Sibunga Jambu is not simply a performing art, but a vehicle for internalizing character education values. In the 10-movement movement aspect, nine character education values were identified: religiousness, honesty, discipline, independence, politeness, patriotism, friendship/communicativeness, social awareness, and responsibility. Nine other values were not found in the movement aspect. In the costume aspect, seven character education values were identified: independence, responsibility, social awareness, patriotism, politeness, religion, and discipline. Eleven other values were not found in the costume. Meanwhile, in the musical accompaniment aspect, six character education values were identified: social awareness, responsibility, creativity, discipline, hard work, and independence. The other 12 values were not found in the musical accompaniment. In conclusion, the learning model at the Tunas Kelapa Art Studio utilizes Tortor Sibunga Jambu as a relevant character education medium for the younger generation (naposo bulung) in Samosir Regency.
