

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

First and foremost, the writer would like to express a very deep thank to Allah SWT for the help and guidance in accomplishing this thesis as a partial fulfilment of the requirements for the Master of Humaniora at English Applied Linguistic Program, State University of Medan. His gratitude is extended to his parents Mr. Karianto, S.pd, Mrs. Sri Atun and his beloved wife and daughter Fauziah Nur, S.S. M.hum. and Amira Izdiyar Tino for their continuous prayers, encouragement, and patience.

It is a very huge pleasure for the writer to acknowledge the following people for their contribution to his education and research. His sincere gratitude and deep appreciation are addressed to Prof. Amrin Saragih, M. A., Ph. D., and Dr. Syahron Lubis as his thesis advisers, for their guidance, encouragement, patience, and supports in improving and finishing this thesis.

It is also his pleasure to acknowledge the superb reviewers Prof. Dr. Busmin Gurning M.pd, Prof. Dr. Berlin Sibarani. M.pd, Dr. Sri Minda Murni, M.S. for their effort and patience in helping, guiding, and advising him in this research.

Great thanks are also expressed to his close friends, Ohara Pasaribu, Rahmat Wahyudin Sagala, Mr. Haris Tamimi and all XVIII, especially class B.

Overall, the writer hopes that this thesis will be applied and give a bit contribution to the language education, especially discourse analysis, and further discourse research.

Medan, August 2015

The writer,

Teguh Agustino
8106112020