LINDA SWIYARNI, NIM 708532049. The Influence of Implementation Principal of Good Governance to the Public Service in SKPD Subdistict Governmental of Medan Town. Skripsi Major of Accounting Specialty Government Accounting. Faculty of Ekonomic, State University of Medan, 2012.

Problems good governance emerge because there is not satisfied to governmental performance which during the time is trusted by as organizer of public business. this Research target is to know Principal execution of good governance in SKPD of Governmental Subdistrict of Medan Town, to know influence of principal execution of good governance to public service in SKPD of Governmental Subdistrict of Medan Town and to know the level of influence of principal execution of good governance to public service in SKPD of Governmental Subdistrict of Medan Town.

This research is done/conducted at SKPD of Governmental Subdistrict of Medan Town with population as much 21 SKPD of Governmental Subdistrict of Medan Town. Is obtained sampel as much 21 SKPD Subdistrict consisted of 42 respondents. Technique analyse data used in this research is analysis of simple regresi and Test R Square.

Result of data analysis using equation regresi $Y = a + bX$ obtained by result $Y = 10,561 + 0,703X$. Form the to linear regresi modestly explain, the constant of equal to 10,561 expressing that if principal execution of good governance there no hence the public service in Governmental SKPD Subdistrict of Medan Town of equal to 10,561. While Coefficient of regresi of variable of X of equal to 0,703 expressing that each every happened by the addition once the principal Execution of Good Governance, that will improve Public Service equal to 0,703. R Square value of 0,589 means that implementation of Good Governance give contribution [of] equal to 58,9 % to public service.

Pursuant to inferential above solution that principal execution of good governance generally have an effect on to public service in SKPD of governmental Subdistrict of Medan Town.

Keyword : Implementation Principal of Good Governance, Public Service.
