

CHAPTER V CONCLUSIONS AND SUGGESTIONS

A. Conclusions

After analyzing types of speech function and speech role in Carl Fredricksen's dialogue on Up movie, the conclusion are presented as follows:

- 1) There are four types of speech functions: they are statement, question, offer and command. All of the types are used in Carl Fredricksen's utterances on Up movie. The total of speech function occurrences are 269 (100%) with deals as follow: statement is 150 (55,7%), question is 54 (20%), command is 61 (22,6%), and offer is 4 (1,4%).
- 2) There are two types of speech roles: they are giving and demanding. All of the types are used in Carl Fredricksen's utterances on Up movie. The total of speech role occurrences are 269 (100%) with deals as follow: giving is 154 (57,2%) and demanding is 115 (42,7%).
- 3) The dominant type of speech function which is used in Carl Fredricksen's utterance is statement and the dominant type of speech role which is used in Carl Fredricksen's utterance is giving. This is because the speech function and the speech role of statement deal with interacting the commodity giving information rather than the commodity of goods and services.

- 4) From the previous analysis, it can be seen that statement and giving are generally used in the movie. It means that statement forms are uttered when the actor wants to give the information in an entertaining way to the reader.
