

CHAPTER V CONCLUSIONS AND SUGGESTIONS

A. Conclusions

After analyzing the data, conclusions are drawn as the following:

1. The application of Watching Movie significantly improved the students' achievement in writing narrative text. It is shown by the mean of the students in orientation test (38.37), test I (66.14), and test II (83.11).
2. The application of Watching Movie improved the students' enthusiasm in writing narrative text. They got more enjoyable and interested in writing narrative text by applying Watching Movie.

B. Suggestions

Related to the conclusion above, some suggestions are pointed out as follows:

1. It is suggested that English teachers to improve students' narrative writing by using the Watching Movie because it helps the students to make the writing process become easier to do the narrative writing.
2. It is suggested for the students to practice their narrative writing by using Watching Movie because it helps the students to make the writing process become easier to do the narrative writing.
3. It is suggested that readers use Watching Movie in writing narrative text

THE
Character Building
UNIVERSITY