

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSIONS AND SUGGESTIONS

A. Conclusions

Through considering the analysis and determining the types of conversational implicature in the transcript of the four episodes in Face2face with Desi Anwar on Metro TV, the conclusions are presented as follows:

1. The two types of conversational implicature were occurred in the four episodes of Face2face with Desi Anwar on Metro TV. They were Generalized Conversational Implicature (94) and Particularized Conversational Implicature (64).
2. The most dominant type of conversational implicature was Generalized Conversational Implicature.
3. The interviewees used the clear and orderly answers to make the interviewer and the listeners understood what he/she is talking about. According to this dominant type, it means that what the expectation of the interviewer to find an interested and inspiring talk show to the people has done. People can understand easily what they are talking about because the interviewer always try to get depth answers from the interviewees.

B. Suggestions

By considering the research findings and the conclusions, there are some suggestions which are presented as follows:

1. The students are suggested to comprehend the conversational implicature in Pragmatics class so that they can get the meaning in a conversation, whether it's explicitly or implicitly.
2. English teachers are suggested to enrich their teaching materials by using some of television program to improve the students' ability and to grow the students' interest in conversational implicature.
3. Other researchers are suggested to make a more depth analysis of conversational implicature in their objects.
