

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

First of all, the writer is very grateful to Jesus Christ who has given blessing, strength and patient so that this thesis could be finished. This is intended to fulfill a part of requirements to get the degree of Master Humaniora at the English Applied Linguistics Program, Post Graduate School State University of Medan.

The writer would like to express his special appreciation and thanks to his first adviser Prof. Dr. Lince Sihombing, M.Pd and his second adviser Dr. Eddy Setia, M.Ed, TESP for brilliant comments, suggestions and advice in writing this thesis.

The writer also would like to extend his greatest gratitude to Prof. Dr. Busmin Gurning and Dr. Sri Minda Murni, M.S, the Head and Secretary of English Applied linguistics Program, for their help regarding the administrative procedures. All the lecturers who have shared their knowledge to him during his academic year. Furthermore, the writer would also like to acknowledge Drs. R. Anakampun, M.Pd.K who gave the permission in doing research and all of theology students as respondents of this study.

His thanks go to his family, beloved mother, mother-in law, father-in-law, brothers and sisters, thank you for your prayer for me. At the end, the writer would like to express his appreciation to his beloved wife Friska, his beloved son Immanuel and his beloved daughter Margaret, thank you for your prayer, supports and advices.

Tarutung, January 2015

Raikhapoor

