

CHAPTER V CONCLUSIONS AND SUGGESTIONS

A. Conclusions

The study concerned on politeness in addressing terms of Toba Batak teenagers, it was aimed at describing the utterances used by Toba Batak teenagers. Based on the analysis, the conclusions are stated as the following.

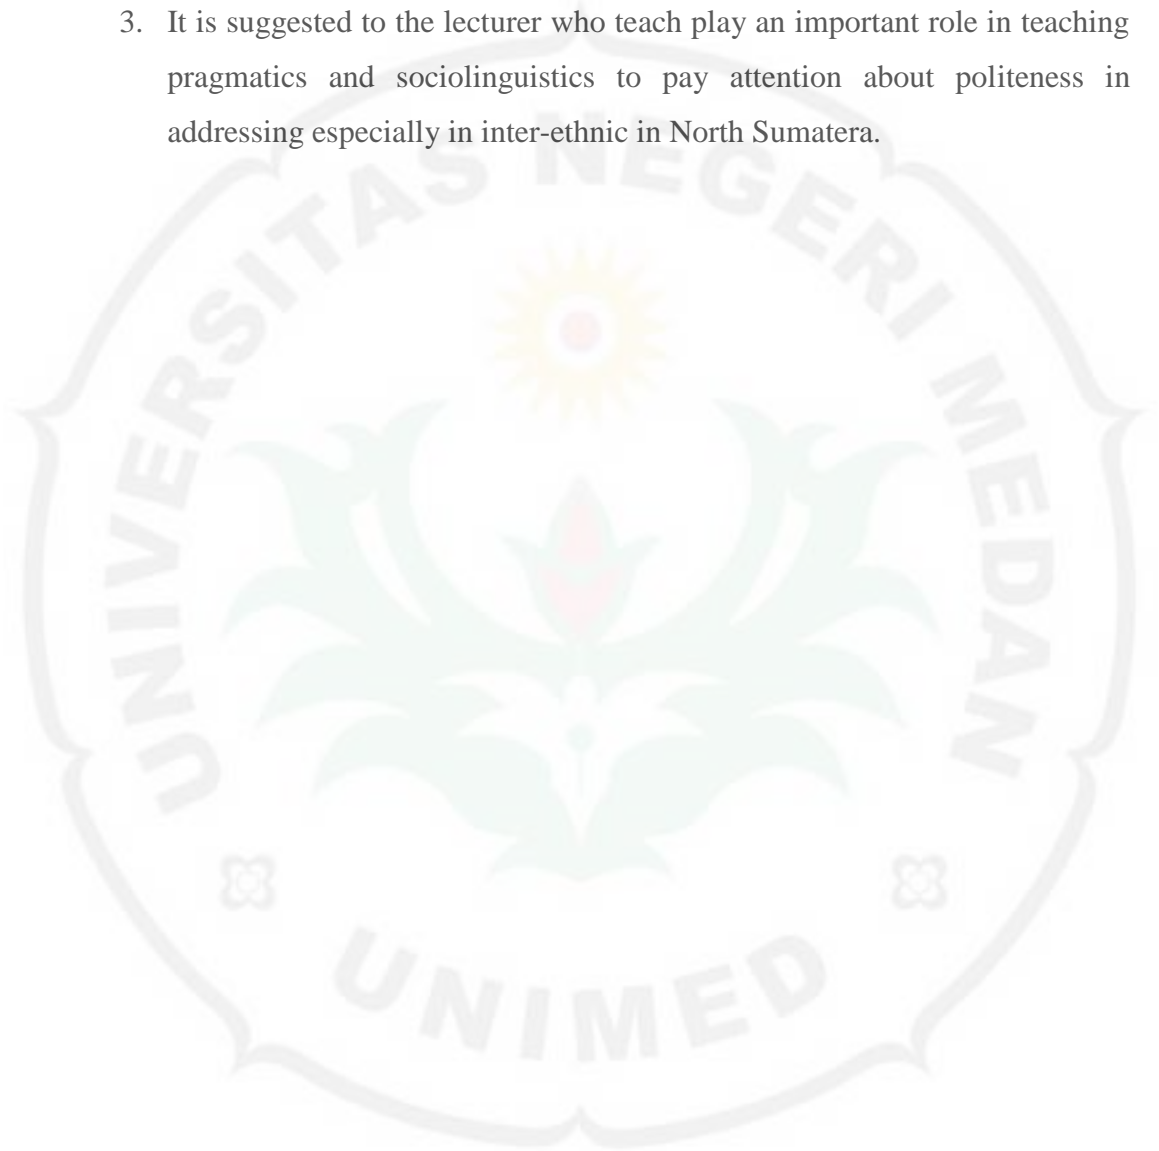

- 1) The Toba Batak teenagers uses address terms in two ways they are single addressing and double addressing. Single addressing to show politeness for intimacy purpose while double addressing is to emphasize that the speaker respect to the hearer.
- 2) The Toba Batak teenager uses the types of politeness namely positive politeness for person that we have intimate relation with the speaker, negative politeness for non intimate person to show the respect.

B. Suggestions

It is suggested to those who concerned with Toba Batak teenagers to learn about politeness in addressing terms.

1. It is suggested to Toba Batak teenagers to express their politeness especially in addressing terms when they want to communicate to other.
2. It is suggested to all parents especially Toba Batak native speaker to teach their children from beginning about the addressing so that they can apply it in their daily life.

3. It is suggested to the lecturer who teach play an important role in teaching pragmatics and sociolinguistics to pay attention about politeness in addressing especially in inter-ethnic in North Sumatera.

THE
Character Building
UNIVERSITY