

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSIONS AND SUGGESTIONS

A. Conclusions

After analyzing types of language style in King's Speech Movie, the conclusions are presented as follows:

- 1) There are five types of language style: they are frozen, formal, consultative, casual, and intimate. All of the types are used in King's Speech Movie. The total of language style occurrences are 339 (100%) with deals as follow: frozen is 15 (4,4%), formal is 62 (18,2%), consultative is 187 (55,1%), casual 71 (20,9%) and intimate is 4 (1,1%).
- 2) The most dominant type of language style in Bertie's utterance is consultative. This is because the style is the central point in the system of language style and typically of this style is dialogue, thought formal enough that words are chosen with some care. .
- 3) From the previous analysis, it can be seen that language style are generally used in the movie. It means that consultative style is uttered when the actor wants to give the information in an entertaining way to the reader.

B. Suggestions

Referring to the result of this research, the following suggestions are forwarding:

- 1) Students of the English Department are advised to study more about language style to help them understand and comprehend it and enrich their knowledge about types of language style, especially in movie.
- 2) Other researcher as reference for the further research to analyze the types of language style as a comparison. This study can help the further research to be more understand clearly how significance the language style in communication.