

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSIONS AND SUGGESTIONS

5.1. Conclusions

After doing the research, the writer concluded as the followings:

Jane Austen active in her writing in the twentyth century. There are some situation of culture of England that influenced her works

1. Politic

There are the social class differentiation for women in Britain 1800s. The divisions of the classes were very distinct, and although none of the women in any of the classes had much power, there were differences in the daily life, family life and working life. This situation are showed in Austen's Work. Lady chaterine as an aunt of Darcy intervned their relationship. She look down Elizabeth Bennet and announced that Darcy is a rich man got a good education is suitable engaged to her daughter .

2. Economic

Her mother (Elizabeth's mother) has a big ambition to marry her sisters. She knows that the only one way to make her daughters life better is to marry them to rich man, because it can save her sisters from destitution.

3. Social Cultural

At that time still in the influence of the world war II, Austen bring that situation in her literary work. She described the soldier and the manners of the society perfectly and naturally.

Jane Austen put her life experiences as the material of her literary work. Both of Jane Austen's experiences and Elizabeth Bennet's experiences have six similarities as following:

1. Both Jane Austen and Elizabeth Bennet must face marriage problem.
2. Both Jane Austen and Elizabeth Bennet were displeased by inheritance law.
3. Both Jane Austen and Elizabeth Bennet have close relationship with their elder sister.
4. Both Jane Austen and Elizabeth Bennet love a man, but their relationship intervened.
5. Both Jane Austen and Elizabeth Bennet interested in book.
6. Both Jane Austen and Elizabeth Bennet live in the life forms of gentry.

5.2. Suggestions

1. It is suggested for literary class to develop the appreciation toward literary work especially by exploring the movie that based on biographical novel.

2. It is better for the readers of literary class to explain to the students to recognize the background of a literary work, such as the biography of the author would be helpful.
3. Those, who want to analyze the movie, can refer to this study to help them understanding about the author's life background and the author's life reflection that can be found in Elizabeth Bennet.
