

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSIONS AND SUGGESTIONS

A. Conclusion

After analyzing figurative language in Langston Hughes poetry which was represented by the six poetry of Langston Hughes, the research can be concluded as follows:

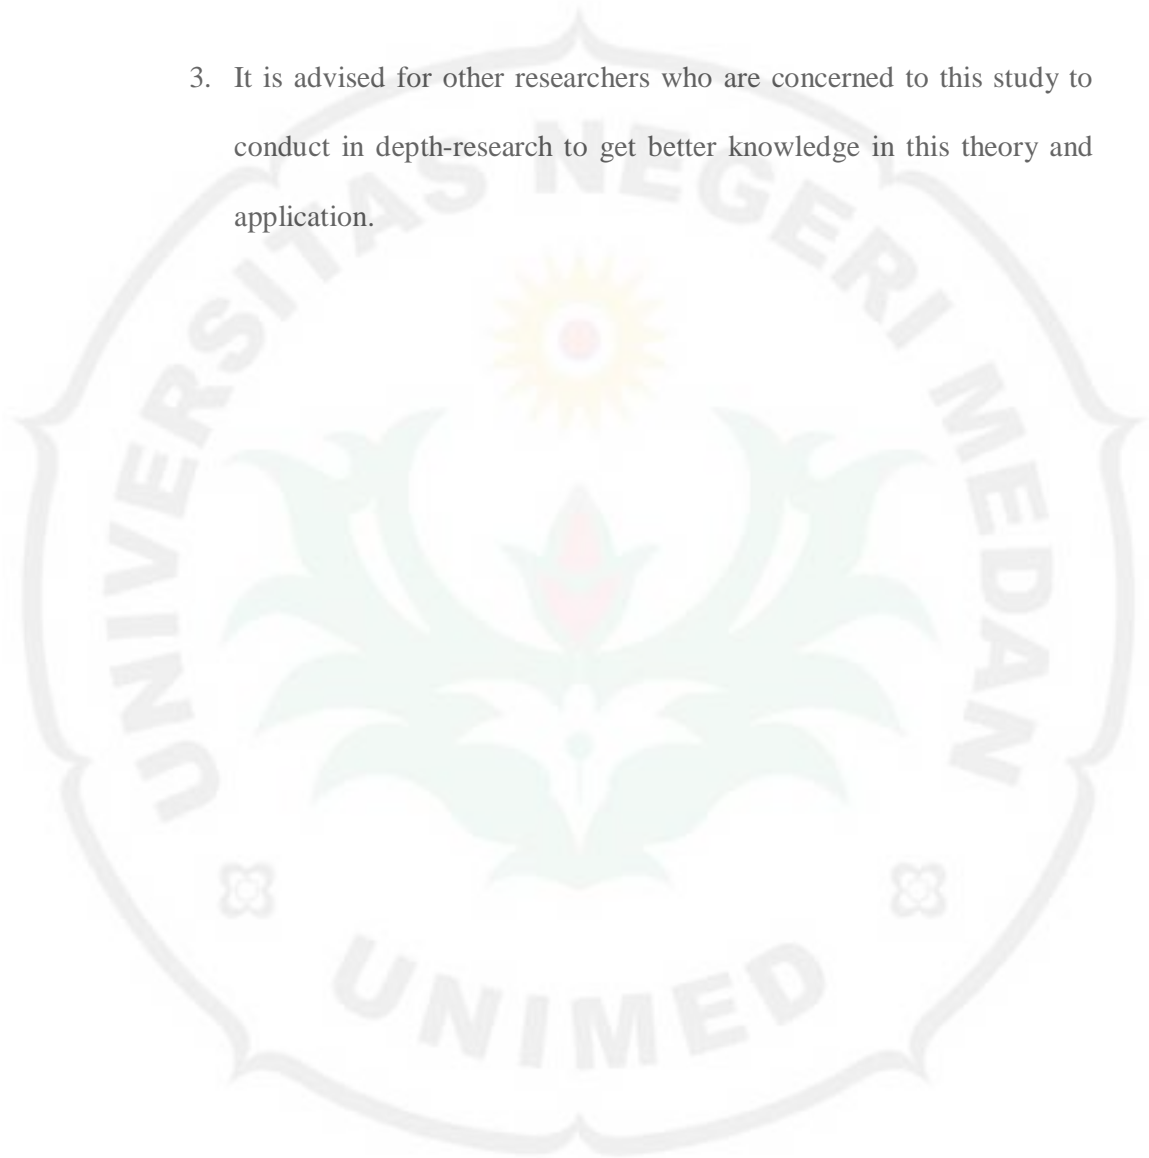

1. The six poetry by Langston Hughes was related with types of figurative languages.
2. Hyperbole is the most dominant types because it indicates activities that happen in Langston Hughes poetry. Furthermore, Langston Hughes poetry told about much kind of figurative languages that can be done to make people knows about Langston Hughes poetry.

B. Suggestions

Based on the conclusion above, the suggestions are as follows:

1. It is suggested that the students of English department should understand how to analyze figurative language in part of poetry in such kind of research either in spoken or written, such as: speech, song, magazine, newspaper, novel, poetry, etc.
2. It is suggested that the teachers can use Langston Hughes as one of the objects used in analyzing the transitivity system because it is a valuable source of teaching material.

3. It is advised for other researchers who are concerned to this study to conduct in depth-research to get better knowledge in this theory and application.

THE
Character Building
UNIVERSITY