

CHAPTER V CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

A. Conclusion

Based on the analysis of the utterances in The Hangover movie's script in the previous chapter, it can be concluded that :

1. There are four types of maxims which are violated by the main characters in The Hangover movie i.e. maxim of quality, quantity, relation, and manner in responding the question or statement given by the other characters. It caused by some factors such as the speakers use irony words, say the utterances which have lack evidences, give untrue information, give more or less information than is required, make unrelated respond with the topic and say an obscurity expression.
2. The maxim which is dominantly violated in The Hangover movie's script is maxim of quality (22 utterances, 53,7%) because all of the main characters give untrue information to hide the truth about the real information, then it followed by maxim of relation (9 utterances, 21,9%), manner (8 utterances, 19,5%) and quantity (2 utterances, 4,9%).
3. The context of the dominant violation of maxim occur is when the main character give the untrue information to hide the truth in their answer or comment. In this case, Stu usually violating the maxim of quality to Melissa. Stu and Melissa are couple, and Stu knows Melissa well. He knows that Melissa is a jealous person, that's why he violating the maxim of quality by giving the untrue information to hide the truth and make

4. Melissa believe on him without angry. Another situation is when Phil violating the maxim of quality to Tracy. Phil and Tracy are friend, Tracy is a fiancée of Doug. Phil did the violation of maxim to hide the truth by giving untrue information in his answer and comment. He did this because he wants to save his face. He afraid if Tracy knows and getting angry to him about the real situation that happened to them in Vegas, that's why he violating the maxim of quality.

B. Suggestion

The writer suggest the readers especially the student of English Department to choose the violation of maxims as the object of research, because many interesting aspects which can be analyzed especially in the drama comedy movie. Some people do not know how important and crucial to learn violation of cooperative principle to achieve the successful and ideal communication because people usually often do it.
