

CHAPTER V CONCLUSIONS AND SUGGESTIONS

A. Conclusion

After analyzing the data, conclusions are drawn as the following

1. There are five types of logical functions that are classified from expansion, and projection used in the mourning tradition of Karonese utterances. They are elaboration, extension, enhancement, locution, and idea. The occurrences of elaborations are 10 (8,13%) utterances. The occurrences of extensions are 18 (14,63%) utterances. The occurrences of enhancements are 59 (47,96%) utterances. The occurrences of locutions are 30 (24,39%) utterances. The occurrences of ideas are 6 (6,50%) utterances. The most dominant type of logical function is enhancement.
2. Enhancements types show that Karonese always express their sorrow in Simate-mate tradition by expanding the utterances, qualifying it with some circumstantial feature of time, place, cause or condition. In those qualifying, there are utterances which show many social values. In this case the social value is in the mourning tradition tends to motivate, advice, amuse, and strengthen the condolences family by giving the pengapul.
3. The implication of this mourning tradition have many function in life, such as communication, social value, emotional expression, aesthetical, and educational function.

A. Suggestions

By considering the conclusion there are some suggestions which are presented as follows:

- 1 The data of logical function was taken from the mourning tradition of Karonese as the consideration to learn a new thing not only from the theory but also from the direct application, so the readers can learn it and useful to increase their understanding in logical function especially through this unique tradition well.
- 2 It is suggested to the English teacher or lecturer, it is important to them as the facilitator in teaching learning process to understand not only the theory but also the application of logical function so that they can apply it in teaching.

This is really important for the readers to learn about logical function through the mourning tradition of Karonese because there are many social values that can be useful as the reflection of the life. As the result, the new generation will not forget the importance of this tradition and easier them to find out about the logical function in the mourning tradition of Karonese.