

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTIONS

A. Conclusion

After analyzing the aspects of tenor that were used by Jokowi and Ahok in their utterances, the following conclusion were drawn:

1. The utterances of Jokowi and Ahok often used equal status, but sometimes they used unequal status that made themselves in same position as the audience or lower than the addressee. Jokowi and Ahok have infrequent contact when delivering their utterances. It is proven that they never used nick name of a person although they just called someone by just his/her name without his/her title. Jokowi and Ahok used formal language in formality, but Jokowi mostly used informal when he did blusukan.
2. In affective involvement, Jokowi and Ahok used high involvement. They often showed their pride and thankfulness in delivering their utterances. They thanked to people that give them honor in delivering their utterances and to the audience who are listening and supporting them in their speech. This shows the speakers have made a big influence in public speaking, especially as a politician in governmental.
3. Jokowi and Ahok used tenor because tenor deals with the way people speak.

B. Suggestion

Concerning to the conclusion, it is suggested that:

1. For students, it was suggested to know about tenor in order to be able to speak in front of many people in proper way.
2. It was hoped that the reader should consider using the aspects of tenor for making a good utterances.

