

CHAPTER V CONCLUSIONS AND SUGGESTIONS

A. Conclusions

Slang was interesting to be studied and to be analyzed especially in the lyrics of songs. Slang has been part of daily conversation to help convey message especially by young people and students. After presented the analyzing of slang words used in Jay-Z's song lyrics the writer got the answers of two problems in the first chapter.

1. This study done to describe the type of slang words and classified them into four parts, they are various slang, abbreviate words, slang that is used in American Television program and the particular phrase and idiom. It was followed by describing the meaning of slang in these songs.
2. The most dominant type of Slang was abbreviate words with 73 words (68,22%) which was showed in Jay-z's song lyrics Unfinished album that published in 2004.

B. Suggestions

There are some reasons why people use slang, such as slang can represent the certain sub social's group identity, because it is cool, it seems like fashion when everybody likes it, and it will be often used by people. So, the writer would like to suggest to:

1. The students are suggested to comprehend sociolinguistics especially knowledge about slang language so that they can use slang language in the appropriate condition
2. The other researcher that want to analyze the slang is suggested to find the other literary works such as novel, poem, drama, film, etc
3. People are suggested to better don't use slang word. And just use the correct language in their daily conversation.

