

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSIONS AND SUGGESTIONS

A. Conclusions

From this study, the conclusions could be drawn:

- 1) There are 29 speaking materials found in the textbook, it has the various forms of speaking materials, but the most dominant forms displayed in Look Ahead 2 English textbook are forms of dialog and expression.
- 2) The speaking materials almost fulfilled the criteria of good speaking materials, because the rate is over 60% (75% in first criteria, 66.67% in second criteria, and 100% in third criteria).

B. Suggestions

Relating to the conclusions of the result in analyzing the speaking materials in Look Ahead 2 English textbook for the eleventh grade students of senior high school, The following suggestions are:

1. For the English teachers

The English teachers should pay attention in choosing the English textbook which is provided by the school and must be compatible with the existing curriculum. Therefore, it is better for them to be more wise in selecting the content of the textbook when taught the students, use more additional English textbook as the other instructional material, and master the materials of the textbook before conducting the teaching-learning process.

2. English textbook writers

The English textbook writers should pay attention the standard competence and basic competence in KTSP syllabus when arranged the materials in the textbook. So, the English textbook will fulfill to the English standard competence and students' interests and also appropriate to the students' ability level. Therefore, the English textbook can be as a good learning source and help the teacher and students in teaching-learning process.

3. Students

The students practice their speaking ability in their daily life. Practice to use the expressions relate to daily life with friends/ classmate. Dare to express and use it.

4. Other researchers

There are still so many English textbook offered by other publishers. The other researchers can do the analysis relate to the speaking materials or other subject and develop the speaking materials to be better one. This thesis would be used as a reference in order to conduct a further research in analyzing the textbook.