ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

This Study is concerned with speech functions used by men and women in the business transactions in traditional markets. It is submitted to Graduate Program of Unimed as one of the requirements for the degree of Magister Humaniora in English Applied Linguistics. The completion of this thesis would have never been made without the help from several people.

First of all, I particularly indebted to my first and second consultants: Prof. Amrin Saragih, M.A, Ph.D and Prof. Dr. J. Naibaho for their generosity guidance, patience, encouragement, motivation, and many useful advices they have given to me during the completion of this thesis.

I would also like to acknowledge the valuable and helpful constructive suggestions made by the reviewers: Prof. D.P. Tampubolon, M.A, Ph.D, Dr. Berlin Sibarani, M.Pd and Dr. Busmin Gurning, M.Pd. Thanks are also due to the Head and the Secretary of English Applied Linguistics Program: Prof. Dr. Jawasi Naibaho and Dra. Meisuri, M.A, and to all the lecturers: Prof. D.P Tampubolon, M.A, Ph.D, Prof. M. Butarbutar, Ph.D, Prof. M. Silitonga, Ph.D, Prof. Bahren Umar, Ph.D, Dr. Lince Sihombing, M.Pd, and the staff: Sudianto Manullang to guide and facilitate the students of Graduate Program in English Applied Linguistics of Unimed, And my special thanks to my brother Ir. Iswanto Sembiring AMKA, who always support the writer during finishing her study.

The sincere thanks should always be offered to my beloved husband, Ir. Edi Martua Lubis for his support in moral and material. Thanks to my son and daughter, Rizki Enda Pratama and Namira Dwi Wulan and all my friends in Applied Linguistics
