Bismillahirrahmanirahim,

Praise and gratitude be to Allah SWT, who has given blessing and opportunity to the researcher to accomplish this thesis. She realizes that it is impossible to finish this thesis without any help, advice, support and encouragement from others.

The very first people to whom my sincere thanks go to my advisers, Prof. Amrin Saragih, M.A, Ph.D, and Dr. Anni Holila Pulungan, M.Hum, whose guidance and advice were the assets to accomplish this thesis. As my supervisors, they have shared their valuable knowledge by reading, criticizing, and discussing my thesis with me over their priceless time. They have been dutifully patient and enlightening the writing process of my thesis.

The second group of people who are always in my heart's list of gratitude are all of the lecturers who have always been reliable teachers for encouragement and enlightenment. Special gratitude goes Dr. Rahmad Husein, M.Ed, and Dr. Anni Holila Pulungan, as the Head and Secretary of English Applied Linguistics Study Program, who has always cared with every student's academic issues in detail.

Librarians have always played a quiet but crucial role. I would single out particular thanks for helpful and professional staffs of the library in the Post Graduate Programs of State University of Medan.

On this special occasion, I would also like to express my sincerest gratitude and thousands of kisses go to my dearest mother who has never been absent supplying the delicious snacks while I was working on my thesis, and my beloved father. Their prayers are always on my side to do my best.

I also owe particular debt of gratitude to my best friends Ira Maria Lumban Batu and Yenita Sembiring who were generous enough to be my debriefing peers and commented my thesis in detail. Other big thanks go to my best friends Fathul Mulki Nasution, Elvi Grace Sianipar, Sari Andriani, Asmitazkirah, Harry Sambayu, M. Nasir have always listened to me with sympathy when I went to them with disheartened frame of mind of my thesis.

This thesis is the result of years of study whereby I was fortunately accompanied and supported. There are many more names without whose support this thesis would not have been accomplished. To all of them, named or not, I offer my thanks.
