ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

This study is concerned with the effect of Reciprocal Questioning and Cooperative Conflict Resolution Methods in Inferential reading comprehension. The study is submitted to Graduate Program of UNIMED in partial fulfillment of the final academic requirements to obtain the degree of Magister of Humanity from English Applied Linguistics.

First of all, the writer would like to thank to the Almighty God for it is impossible for him to complete this thesis without His guidance and blessing. The writer also would like to express his sincere gratitude to Prof. Dr. Jawasi Naibaho, and Prof M. Silitonga, Ph.D. as his first and second consultants, who gave invaluable advices, guidance, comments, encouragement and criticisms to the writer to broaden his perception and knowledge on the topic at hand.

He is also indebted to Prof. Tina Mariany Kariman, M.A., Ph.D., Amrin Saragih, M.A., Ph.D. and Dr. Berlin Sibarani, M.Pd. for their constructive comments and suggestions for the study. His great gratitude is also due to Prof. Dr. Jawasi Naibaho and Dra. Meisuri, M.A both as Head and Secretary to the English Applied Linguistics for their suggestions and administrative assistance during his study and in conducting this research, as well as to the lecturers who advised and guided him throughout his academic years at the Graduate Program of UNIMED.

The Head of State Senior High School of Medan 4, Mr. Nolong Samura, M.Sc.; Dra. Indahsari Karo-Karo and Dra. Sinur Tambunan as professional teachers who helped him in conducting the treatment in his research. And those teachers and students of State Senior High School of Medan 4 who gave supports to this study should deserve his sincere gratitude for their cooperative attitude and work during the research.

The writer's sincerest thanks should also go to his beloved mother, H. Br. Sinaga, who has patiently given moral and financial support, her never-ending love and her prayers.

Next, he wants to express his thanks to his brothers and sisters-in law, Jacob Silalahi, S.Pd.- Nurdiana Siburian, Rev. Johansen Silalahi, S.Th- Rev. Merry Pangaribuan, S.Th, Posman Silalahi, S.H.- Pasaribu, Faber Silalahi, S.T, Salomo Silalahi, S.Com, his sister and brother in law, Anna Silalahi, S.Pd- Manimbul Manik and all his nephews and nieces, who never gave up supporting him in completing this thesis. Also, his aunt and uncle, Drs. S. Panjaitan and R. Br. Silalahi, for their moral and spiritual support during his studies at the English Department.

His best family in Executive Class: B'Indah, Mery, Mariah, Susanto, Ira, Wilda, Ana, B'Diani, Mr. Kamson, should also share the writer's thankfulness for their encouragements, suggestions, and togetherness. And to all of his friends at the English Applied Linguistics especially students of The 3rd generation of Graduate Program for their moral support.

In his effort to overcome all kinds of challenges, the writer has been sympathetically supported by his lovely and charity girl, Riskawaty Dumaria Sianipar, S.Pd, who has always provided him with comforting words in times of pressure for the completion of this work. His great thanks should go to her for her support and loving attitude.

Finally, the writer realizes that his thesis is still far from being perfect in spite of the fact that he has done his best in completing this work. Therefore, constructive criticisms, comments and suggestions are welcomed for further improvement of this thesis.

Medan, August 2002
The writer,
