ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Praise is to the Almighty God for his blessing giving the writer favour to finish writing this thesis. This thesis is intended to be a partial fulfillment of the requirements for the degree of Master of Humaniora of the English Applied Linguistic Department, State University of Medan.

First of all, the writer would like to express his deepest gratitude and appreciation to Prof. Amrin Saragih, Ph.D., his first consultant, for the valuable time spent in giving him fruitful ideas, criticisms and corrections for the draft of the thesis.

Then, his appreciation goes to Dr. Lince Sihombing, M.Pd., his second consultant, for procedures of writing, comments, and suggestions given in the process of completion.

He would also like to express his gratitude to the Head, Secretary, and staff of the English Applied Linguistics Department of State University of Medan for the administrative procedures and to all lecturers and tutors for giving him invaluable lectures, tutorials, and knowledge during the academic years.

This presence of this thesis is also due to the valuable inputs given by his reviewers: Prof. D.P. Tampubolon, Ph.D., Prof. Dr. Jawasi Naibaho, and Dr. Berlin Sibarani, M.Pd. Therefore, he would like to thank them very much.

His deepest gratitude and love are to his beloved wife, Isvanelly Anwar, S.S.; father, Said Astachri Koto; mother, Rosmawati Lubis; father-in-law, H. Anwar Yahya; mother-in-law, Hj. Fedry Yetty Gafhur; sister, Widia Nurfa Rosari, S.H.,

M.Hum., brothers, M. Khairul Amri, S.T. and Ahmad Brata Rosa for the care, support, and prayers that have been given to him.

May God bless us.
