

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSIONS AND SUGGESTIONS

5.1 Conclusions

After analyzing the metadiscourse of economic text in different genre, the conclusions can be drawn as the following:

1. All metadiscourse occurred in economic text in different genre. They are Textual functions: (1) text connectives,(2) code glosses, (3) validity markers, and (4) narrators and Interpersonal function: (1) illocution markers, (2) attitude markers, and (3) commentaries.
2. The reasons for metadiscourse of economics texts with different genres were writing style factors and communicative needs of social context factors.

5.2 Suggestions

Based on the research findings, some suggestions are drawn as follows:

1. It is suggested that economics experts who interested in writing economic text should not feel restricted to the use of metadiscourse and sentence structure, rather that he should be creative to meet the communicative needs of social context since the lexicogrammar itself is dynamic as proven in this research.
2. It is suggested that further research on metadiscourse be conducted by taking more writers of pure economic text to ensure more about the reasons found in this research.
