

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSIONS AND SUGGESTIONS

A. Conclusions

As stated in chapter I, the objective of this study was to develop learning material of descriptive text based on the students' needs as a supplementary material. The developed learning material consisted of two units, namely : Describing people and Describing place. In describing people there were two topics namely; describing public figures (Jokowi Dodo) and Describing an idol (Agnes Monica). The second unit consisted of three texts namely; Azizi Mosque, Tangkahan and Bukit Lawang. Each of text were consisted of two kinds of assesment and in the last page of the learning material the answer keys were provided.

This learning material covered up with the appropriateness of the material structure and language, the content effectiveness and appropriateness, and the attractiveness of the workbook. All of these aspects have been proven valid and reliable by the result of validation. It means that by the design and content, the product is appropriate to be implemented in the classroom

B. Suggestions

In relation to the conclusions, the following suggestions are needed to be considered in conducting the related research. The researcher hopes that this learning material can be used by the students to add and complete their knowledge in studying descriptive text. The second suggestion is for other researchers, hopefully, this research could inspire other researchers who wanted to conduct a further research related to the learning material as a supplementary material development as the references.

THE Character Building
UNIVERSITY