

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

5.1. Conclusion

This study was concern use of speech acts by candidate mayor of Bandung Ridwan Kamil's political speeches in election campaign 2013-2018. It was describing the types of speech acts, the way of performing speech acts and the reason of using speech acts in political speeches in election campaign candidate mayor of Bandung Ridwan Kamil. After all the data have been analyzed, the conclusion can be stated as the following:

1. All the types speech acts were used Ridwan Kamil in political speeches. They were locutionary act, illocutionary acts and perlocutionary act. The illocutionary acts there are five classification namely representative, directive, commissive, expressive and declarative.
2. The mostly type of speech acts used by Ridwan Kamil in political speeches was Illocutionary act. The illocutionary act classification namely representative speech acts was used in forms of affirming, believing, boasting, claiming, complaining, concluding, denying, forecasting, informing, reporting and stating. The ways Performing speech acts in political speeches mostly used was direct speech acts
3. The were some reason for use speech acts in political speeches utilized by candidate mayor of Bandung namely to convince, to actuate, to stimulate, to inform and to entertain the audiences.

5.2. Suggestion

In line with the conclusions, suggestion are staged as following:

1. It is suggested that further studies should be conducted to find out the types of the types speech acts in other context such as social context, religious context and law context because it is possible to find out other reason why speech acts use there.
2. It is advisable for other researchers to conduct the study about speech acts in political speech by providing more data to enrich the analyses of the mostly type of speech acts used in political speech.
3. It is suggested for the students to study about the theory of speech act to provide more data to enrich the analysis of the reasons related to speech acts used in political speech.