

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

5.1 Conclusions

This study was concerned the illocutionary acts realized by Acehese womens in gossip which took place at Bukit Rata village in Kuala Simpang Subdistrict of Aceh Tamiang Regency. It was described the types of the illocutionary acts, the way of performing the illocutionary acts and the reason of using the illocutionary acts in Acehese women's gossip. After all the data have been analyzed, the conclusion can be stated as the following:

1. There were four types of the illocutionary acts realized by Acehese women's in gossip namely assertive, directive, expressive and declarative. The mostly type of the illocutionary act realized by Acehese womens in gossip was assertive of informing.
2. There were two ways of performing the illocutionary acts in Acehese womens gossip namely direct and indirect illocutionary acts. The direct illocutionary act was dominantly realized by Acehese women's in their gossip.
3. There were four reasons of realizing the illocutionary acts in Acehese womens gossip namely knowledge, friendship, influence and entertainment. The knowledge was the mostly realized by Acehese women's in their gossip.

5.2 Suggestions

In line with the conclusions, suggestions are staged as following:

1. It is suggested that further studies should be conducted to find out the types of the illocutionary acts in other region or in both sex such as women and men's gossip to enrich the analysis of the mostly type of illocutionary acts used or realized in conversation or gossip
2. It is suggested for other researchers to conduct the study about the illocutionary acts in gossip or conversation in other region or both sex (men and women) to find out the dominant ways (direct and indirect) of performing the illocutionary acts and to know the differences between men and women in delivering speech or gossip.
3. It is suggested for the students to study about the theory of speech act especially the illocutionary act to expand the reasons of realizing the illocutionary acts in conversation or gossip.