

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

A. Conclusion

The conclusion of this research is :

1. The factor that causes Ed as psychopath is due to environmental factor. As in the very beginning, Ed and Mike has a good relationship as a boss and an employee, but because he falls in love with his daughter that Mike disagrees, it causes him to be a psychopath.

2. There are psychopath elements that linguistically realized in the movie. From 20 symptoms checklist by Hare (1999). There are 11 checklists of psychopathic symptoms as realized in Ed self in IT movie, they are :Glib and superficial charm, Grandiose self-worth, Need for stimulation or proneness to boredom , Pathological lying, Conning and manipulateness, Lack of remorse or guilt, Poor behavioral controls, Promiscuous sexual behavior, Early behavior problems, Lack of realistic long-term goals, and Many short-term relationships. These symptoms are related on to another.

Glib and superficial charm is known when Ed tries to make a relationship with new people in his life. They are Mike and his family. He tries to engage them by uttering precise diction that can cause people believe easily. In addition, he is also an expert of IT that make people has no difficulty to get closer with him. Grandiose self worth symptom is seen in Ed when he explained about several terminologies about IT to Mike. He confidentially tells Mike that he knows everything more than Mike does. He tries to be arrogant and opinionated toward something he is expert about.

Need for stimulation or proneness to boredom is realized in Ed when he is successful to convince Mike through his knowledge about IT. He stimulates Mike's thought to give him trust fully about IT in Mike's life. Pathological lying as symptom of psychopath is seen when Ed has been getting used to pretend to everyone he meets about his real identity. Started from his name until his experience of work, he loves to be a liar.

Conning and manipulateness in Ed's self is when he does many manipulative activities in this film, such as manipulating data; Mike for SEC, pretending himself as the doctor of Rose that debases the mammograph letter, until sending Kaithlyin video to her friends that make her down. Lack of remorse or guilt is known when Ed does not feel guilty toward things that he has already done, even it harms many people.

Poor behavioral controls is when Ed can not control himself when he is rejected by Mike's family. He can not accept the condition and he prefers to take revenge. Promiscuous sexual behavior of Ed is seen by his actions when he likes to spy female workers when he is still working in one company, and not for long he is fired. Early behavior problems of Ed has already seen since he left the dormitory where he is grown up. He starts to lie to people to ensure that he is a good man. Lack of realistic, long-term goals as Ed experience is shown when Ed has no realistic view about what he has done. His goal is only for destroying the people who has hurted him without thinking about the effect of it.

Many short-term relationships of Ed is known when he has no long term relationship in his life. Either it is in working place or even his love. Every relationship that Ed is being engaged with only last about months. Ed uses some linguistic units such as using convincing words, manipulating truth, using threatening words and using exaggerating expression. These all aspects then realize on Ed as a psychopath in this movie.

3. In addition, The causes that drive Ed to be psychopath can be concluded that it is caused by the bad treatments from his boss. It is because his boss does not agree if he has relationship with his daughter. It is also supported by several causes like family background which is broken, lack of affection, physical harrassment, and has consuming some harmful medicines. Those causes are related to one another until they shape Ed to be a cruel psychopath.

B. Suggestions

Some suggestions can be drawn as follow :

1. The readers could use the result of this study especially to the teaching and learning of the character in literary work and is open to further study.
  - a) Suggested to the readers for being a good selves even condition that we face is contradictive to what we have expected.
  - b) One is suggested to learn psychological aspects so that He/She can have a background understanding why a character of a film / novel acts as expected or not as expected

2. Psychopath starts to be formed from family. So it is expected for all family to be home for its member in order children can grow well without having to be someone who is harmful for other. Even the family is incomplete, just be the home that can give warmth to its member.
  - a) It is also advisable that when you dislike someone, you should not directly show your dislikes because the person you mean may revenge what you had done to her or him.
  - b) For all people who unintentionally get hurt by someone's action, it is better to say the complaint directly than do any bad actions that can harm other people
3. Last, it is suggested for all people to read such similar researched in order to get more knowledge about psychopathy that actually exists in our real life.
