ABSTRACT

Sella Daruci, NIM 7141210028, Relationship between Good Corporate Governance (GCG) and Stock Prices in CGPI Rating Companies listed on the Indonesia Stock Exchange for the 2012-2016 Period. Thesis, Department of Management, Faculty of Economics, Medan State University 2019.

Stock prices are investor perceptions of the level of success of the company. High stock prices that illustrate the implementation of good corporate governance have been well implemented. Based on the theory, there are several organs of good corporate governance that have a relationship to stock prices in companies, including: managerial ownership, institutional ownership, independent commissioners, and audit committees. This study aims to determine the effect of managerial ownership, institutional ownership, independent commissioners, and audit committee on stock prices.

The population of this study is all companies listed on the Stock Exchange in 2012-2016 with a population of 539 companies. The sample technique used was purposive sampling with the number of observations obtained as many as 50 data (10 x 5 years).

The data analysis technique of this study is nonparametric statistics by Spearman, managerial ownership results are not related to stock prices, institutional ownership is not related to stock prices, independent commissioners are significantly related to stock prices, and audit committees are significantly related to stock prices.

Keywords: stock prices, managerial ownership, institutional ownership, independent commissioners, and audit committee.
