

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSIONS AND SUGGESTION

A. Conclusions

After analyzing the data, the conclusions are drawn in the following:

1. The result of this research is a new course book which consists of one unit; it is procedure text and some activities. The appropriate topics with the students' major are: make writing for business and how to make a balance sheet accounting.
2. The materials were designed based on need analysis and syllabus. The researcher was conducting the data from evaluation and need analysis by doing interview, documentation and questionnaire to collecting the appropriate topic materials for the students.

THE
Character Building
UNIVERSITY

B. Suggestions

After finishing the conclusions above, the suggestions are as follows:

1. It is suggested that the English teachers of vocational school should be able to provide the appropriate materials for English writing which are meet the students' need.
2. It is suggested that the English teachers should be perceptive with the tasks give. The tasks useful to helping the students increase their writing ability. The teacher should be creative and able to provide the tasks which are appropriate with the students major.
3. The new materials in this study has validated by an English for Specific Purposes expert in the terms of relevancy, contents, layout and linguistic features and the results show that it is good, relevant and valid. It is suggested for English teacher of accounting study program to use this material to increase the students' writing ability, and for the other researcher who do the same study to develop the English material for accounting study program in other skill in order to complete the skill needed by the students of accounting study program.