CHAPTER V
CONCLUSIONS AND SUGGESTIONS

A. Conclusions

The data had been analyzing and the conclusions were drawn as follows:

1. There were two types of overlaps occur in the conversation of 'Ini Talk Show', they were competitive overlap 91 occurrence (39,39%) and non-competitive overlap 140 occurrence (60,60%).

2. The effects of overlap that contributed to the conversation in that TV program intended to provoke laughter and create new ideas/topics.

B. Suggestions

Based on the conclusion above, the suggestions were drawn as follows:

1. Theoretically, the readers could improve their understanding and enrich their knowledge about overlaps. This research might become references for further student.

2. Practically, the other researcher could inspire to conduct a further research related to this study.