

CHAPTER V CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

A. Conclusion

This research was conducted by descriptive qualitative design. After classifying and analyzing all the data, the findings of this research can be concluded that:

1. Based on the results of this research displayed above, it is concluded that the two forms of idiomatic expressions applied in Deli Malay wedding ceremonies are Short and Long Idioms, only two types were applied Figures of Speech and Proper Name. In Deli Malay wedding ceremony, the dominant form is Long idiom amount to 50 (83%) and the dominant type is Figures of Speech amount to 49 (80.3%).
2. The idiomatic expression always mention the words to the sentence to give more wonderful sentence to write or speak. So it is so effective to use in traditional culture or human daily life.
3. The meaning of idiomatic expression in Deli Malay wedding ceremony referred to someone's feelings that conveyed to another people. That feelings can be like hopes, prayers, wishes, and advices conveyed to the family of the bride and groom's side.

B. Suggestion

After concluding all the results of the data, the writer would like to offer some suggestions to be considered by those who are interested in studying about idiomatic expression or making further research about it. They were for both theoretically and practically:

1. Theoretically, through the findings of the research, the students of English and Literature Department are suggested to learn more about idiomatic expression, especially in cultural ceremony, such wedding ceremony.
2. Practically, the students of English and Literature Department are suggested to understand about the use of idiomatic expressions, especially in wedding ceremony.
3. Finally, traditional culture is very important for all people, especially for young generation. So, we must keep the culture tradition.